

Utilization of Low-end handsets allows for affordable prices, low power consumption and smaller learning curves

The Suite of mHealth Applications:

- Facility Reporting
- IDSR (Integrated Disease Surveillance & Response)
- Community-based Beneficiary Tracking

Different solutions based on available infrastructure for low-end phones:

- SMS-based facility reporting
- GPRS-based facility reporting
- Hybrid (GPRS/SMS) community tracking
- GRPS community tracking

DHIS 2 backbone with web interface allows for continuous verification and analysis of Mobile Reported Public Health Data

Java & SMS based Facility Reporting application scaled to 5000 health workers and handsets in Punjab, India

Daily Reporting of Outreach ANC Services through Community-based Beneficiary Tracking