

Improving Health Information Systems through cloud computing in infrastructural challenged areas

Using new features in HTML5 for local browser storage, DHIS2 now offers online services while being offline.

Uploading of local data and downloading of peer data can take place when online, without the risk of losing work if connection is lost

Malawi uses hybrid offline/online cloud from District offices using desktop browsers and facilities from Lilongwe pilot area use mobile JavaME application or low-end phone browsers

